

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The people of the world will celebrate the establishment and the 43rd anniversary of the United Nations on the 24th of October of this year as designated by the United Nations General Assembly; and,

WHEREAS, On this occasion, we join the peoples of the world in reaffirming our commitment to the principles upon which the U.N. was founded -- international peace and security, respect and promotion of social and economic cooperation between nations; and,

WHEREAS, The promotion and protection of human rights and the active participation of the United States government and the peoples of its 50 states in the work of the United Nations are essential to fostering peace and justice in our world; and,

WHEREAS, All Americans are called upon by the President of the United States of America to reflect upon, and participate in, programs and activities celebrating the 43rd birthday of the United Nations and the fortieth anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights; and,

WHEREAS, The United Nations focus is on the entire range of international issues that concern our world today: world hunger, energy conservation, environmental protection and the international economic order; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota celebration of UNITED NATIONS DAY will be at Sioux Falls College, in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, on Sunday, October 23, 1988, at 5 p.m., and I urge all citizens of South Dakota who can, to participate in this observance, and other community observances in social organizations, schools, churches, and homes:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 17-14, 1988, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight
